About Scottsdale

Scottsdale, located in the Sonoran Desert at the foot of the scenic McDowell Mountains, is the epitome of Southwest charm. Known for having some of the very best spas in the world, championship golf courses, fine dining, and jaw dropping backdrops, it was an easy one to pick. Come see why Scottsdale draws celebrities and those who crave pure pampering from all around the world.

About the House

Airport Details

You'll want to fly into the Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport (PHX). There are three other airports, but this is the largest and easiest way to get to the villa.

Travel to the house:

UberX estimates roughly $37.50.

Cabs in Scottsdale, AZ are expected to be $48. The villa is 20 miles from the airport.

Many of our clients choose to share rental cars for the trip or even share an Uber. What a better way to get to know each other!
